Is your church fruitful?

Is your church prepared to take advantage of the harvest that God has called it to? Scripture tells us that those who are in Him are to be fruitful and grow. Leaders of over 80% of the churches in the United States have been faced with the dilemma of what to do when growth has stagnated and their church begins to decline. Oftentimes there are good reasons for this stagnation or decline, but the question still remains: what should the leaders do to get back on track? If your church is asking this question, Titus Task Force can help you discover a Biblical answer.

Who is Titus Task Force?

Founded in 1971, Titus Task Force is composed of ministers who help churches through these challenging times. Titus Task Force seeks to come alongside the pastoral staff and lay leadership of the local church to help prepare them for the next stage of ministry to which God has called them. Titus Task Force staff works with the staff, leadership and congregation to establish a vision, confront sin, challenge mediocrity, encourage and equip the body for fruitful, effective ministry.

We don't need Titus Task Force...or do we?

Churches, like people, have times of strong growth followed by times of decline. It can be helpful to have an objective outside opinion when making decisions about vision, direction, or personnel issues. If your church is struggling with internal issues or simply desires to be more fruitful, Titus Task Force can help. If your church is without a pastor and needs leadership during a transitional time, Titus Task Force's Intentional Interim Pastorates can assist you.

Titus Task Force leaders have a wealth of experience and a dependence upon God that comes from having walked these and other similar roads many times. This experience can be yours when you partner with Titus Task Force.

What does Titus Task Force do?

With God's guidance, Titus Task Force seeks to renew churches and return them to vibrant, energetic ministries. Our outside perspective can help provide your church leadership with an objective assessment. While every situation is unique, there are general principles that Titus Task Force seeks to follow. These are:

1. Resolve - conflict among believers.
2. Restore - leaders to their roles as servants who protect, lead and care for the flock that God has entrusted to them.
3. Refocus - to fulfill God's mission and vision for the church and to Biblical obedience in all areas of church and personal life.
4. Regroup - through training and equipping members for fruitful ministry.
5. Regenerate - the church through the work of the Holy Spirit as people experience God and adjust their hearts to His plan.

What does it cost?

Titus Task Force operates under the principle in Luke 10:7 "...the laborer is worthy of his hire..." Titus Task Force staff are paid according to the services provided. A Titus Task Force minister is also a missionary who is supported, in part, by individuals and church donations (all donations are tax deductible).

Why wait?

Scripture teaches that the shepherds must give an accounting for their flock. If your church is facing issues that are interfering with ministry and detracting from God's work - don't wait. Every day that goes by someone's life is affected, sometimes with eternal consequences. Call today, and let's discuss how Titus Task Force can help your church begin to grow and bear fruit again.
